

California houses the garlic festival held in Gilroy each year. Did you know that California farmers grow $179 million worth of garlic each year? First find--then color purple--the letters in the word G A R L I C.

